Cynthia – This One's For You

One day in January, 1976, I became editor of the New Hampshire College Yearbook. I stumbled into the Student Activities Office and to my amazement I found a very pleasant secretary who knew more about the Yearbook than I did. I had no idea that this woman would become a "Second Mother."

Cynthia Levine is everyone's "Second Mother." Every student who deals with the Student Activities Office is her son or daughter. She listens to their problems and gripes and jokes around. She creates a pleasant atmosphere, so the students do not feel alienated when they enter the office.

At the publication of this book, New Hampshire College will have lost Cynthia to the sun and fun of Florida. So as editor, I dedicate this book to Cynthia Levine.

... And these I see, these sparkling eyes,
These stores of mystic meaning, these young lives,
Building, equipping like a fleet of ships, immortal ships,
Soon to sail out over the measureless seas,
On the soul's voyage.

How could this campus service without these men? They clean up our messes and fix our broken rooms. For all your work, the yearbook staff salutes you. Keep up the good work.

ACTIVITIES

The background of the page is a solid blue color. In the lower-left corner, there is a stylized mountain graphic. The mountain's peak is a white triangle. Below the peak, the mountain's body is a large green shape. The boundary between the white peak and the green body is a wavy, irregular line, resembling a snowline or a series of small hills. The overall effect is a simple, abstract representation of a mountain landscape.
