

THE TORCH

1967

NEW

HAMPSHIRE

COLLEGE

DEDICATION

To a teacher who has inspired and taught us far beyond the limits of the classroom.

A teacher who with his quiet manner has taken an individual interest in each of us.

A teacher who is an advisor not only in the academic sense, but in all phases of life.

A teacher who is truly a Teacher.

Because you are all of these to us, we the class of 1967, dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. George Teloian.

IN APPRECIATION

As editor of the 1967 Torch, I would like to thank the staff for making this the most ambitious and, I hope, the most enjoyable yearbook in the history of New Hampshire College.

Our staff this year was large and active, which is necessary for undertaking the task of producing a publication of this caliber. However, even the most dedicated organization would fall short of its expectations without capable and interested guidance. This is why we would like to show our appreciation to Mrs. Mary Dionne.

It was because of her efforts that a yearbook was initiated at N.H.C., and her determination has been the most significant factor in the task of supplying this college with a book of commendable quality.

I am sure that I express the sentiments of everyone associated with New Hampshire College when I say Thank you Mrs. Mary Dionne.

*Brian Lewis,
Editor-in-chief*

P. 6-7

The division pages shown here are designed to provide more than just a table of contents.

The still life photographs provide a pictorial representation of the five sections of the Torch. The art work introduces us to the philosophy of New Hampshire College.

Liberal Arts play an important part of the academic programs here at N.H.C. Many courses are provided in the fields of Psychology, Philosophy, Science, and Sociology. It is the opinion of the Administration that a broad education is necessary for the development of a well-rounded person. This philosophy has helped New Hampshire College grow from a business school into a nationally accredited college.

We hope that this yearbook will provide the graduates of 1967 with a cherished memory of the fun they had here, the friendships they knew here, and most important of all, the knowledge they gained here.

A MESSAGE BY MRS. H. A. B. SHAPIRO

COLLEGE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 1967 Torch is symbolic of a year in your College life. For some of you it will represent the first year of your College experience, for some of you it will represent the middle years of your College experience, for others of you it will represent the culmination of your College life at New Hampshire College. To all of you we trust you have gained a richer and more satisfying life—and a deeper appreciation of your professional education.

As each year passes in your life, your yearbook will become more and more meaningful. You will look through its pages and you will come upon scenes that will evoke memories of your College life—the years of elation, of disappointment; the years of growth, of hesitation; the years of friends made, some gone from your daily life, but still cherished.

For those of you who are graduating, it is our hope that you have not only acquired a background for “earning a living,” but also have a clearer understanding of “how to live”. As you join the company of educated men and women, you join hands with an ever-increasing group of college graduates who are dedicated to the philosophy that the free and inquiring mind must be given full expression in the solution of man’s problems. It is only through the search for truth that man can really become free.

WEEK

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION WEEK

Orientation week is the beginning of a great new life for the freshmen at New Hampshire College. They get their first taste of the excitement and also the rigorous demands before them. These next four years will be the most difficult of their lives, but they will also be the most valuable and for the majority of students the most enjoyable time ever.

N.H.C. provides an excellent social life for its students, as was obvious to all freshmen during this initial week. However, the placement exams were cause for realization of the scholastic requirements here at New Hampshire College. The freshman soon learns that academic survival necessitates social sacrifice.

PAGEANT*

Lana Gill

The Sheraton-Carpenter Ballroom was the scene for the Annual Miss New Hampshire College Pageant. Seven attractive and talented girls gave a near-capacity audience a full night of entertainment. The Pageant consisted of three parts: the gown presentation, the swim suit presentation and finally the talent contest.

The director and emcee for the third year was the lovely Mrs. Dorothy Rogers. Mrs. Rogers put many long hours in preparing the final evening and on Saturday, February 25, New Hampshire College received a new queen. The first runner up, Miss Lana Gill of Manchester, was chosen first, and then the queen: Miss Charlene Windham of East Douglas, Massachusetts. Lana did a very amusing acting skit and Charlene did a vocal selection for their talent performance. It was a very difficult choice but from the enthusiastic reaction of the audience, the judges made the correct decision.

Charlene will now represent New Hampshire College in the Miss New Hampshire Pageant.
