ACCUMULATION '68
 NEW HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE
 MANCHESTER, NEW HAMPSHIRE
 MAHALA J. KING, EDITOR

College is but a collection of fragments: classes, projects,
late nights, studying, talking, arguing,
partying, people, friends, habits,
watering holes, Bobby's Lunch,
the UK, mornings after the night before,
challenges, questions and answers,
more questions, more challenges.

Our memory serves as the treasurer of our happenings, best are those lingering in an pleasing sensation.

The biggest fragments are people,
they compose the excitement, pain,
learning and experience that is College.

All these fragments accumulate to form memories and the experience that is College.

ACCUMULATION '68

The Board of Directors will meet in the Palace Fruit at 4 p.m.

A discussion on reform.

Is this anyway to treat Popeye?

Accounting seemingly is an unruly mass, not an orderly accumulation.

People promote memories, of other people, things and places.

FALL AND WINTER WEEKENDS

The Student Senate booked comedian Richard Pryor, The Steve Barron Quartet and the Spectras for the Spring Concert held at the Swing Thing in Bedford. Saturday night there was a formal dance at the Sheraton Wayfarer with Dick Madison's band. The first student activity was held on the new campus on Sunday with a picnic and tree chopping contest. This was the most successful Spring Weekend held at New Hampshire College due to the Large number of participating students.

Six girls competed for the title of Miss N.H. College in the spring. They were Lana Gill, Diane Marcoux, Virginia Mattson, Corrine Morril, and Susan Stockwell, Deborah Winship. The gown competition was followed by swim suits and then talent. A large audience attended and routed for favorites. The evening was climaxed with Deborah Winship of Dover, N.H., being crowned the new Miss New Hampshire College of 1968.

Sigma Kappa Epsilon, now in its third year of existence, has expanded its membership and scope of activities. Also, the frat is in the process of joining a national fraternal organization. Many of its members hold positions of responsibility in the life of the College. The fraternity strives to promote school spirit and has members on sports teams such as Basketball, Skiing, Baseball, Soccer and Golf.

The Inter Fraternal Council is composed of the President and two elected members of each fraternal organization in the College. The Council is a governing body for relations among the organizations and has set precedents for the growing fraternal system at New Hampshire College. Also, the Council sponsors two blood drives a year in support of the American Red Cross. The Chairmanship of the Council rotates among all organizations and changes each semester. This year the Council voted to have fall pledging for transfer students to allow them to become more quickly a part of New Hampshire College.

The New Hampshire College Soccer Team is composed of 24 interested players, whose membership is determined on ability and good academic standing. Dean William Beane is an avid coach and started the team three years ago. Since their beginnings the team has compiled a three year record of 25 wins, 18 losses, and 3 ties. Also, the team belongs to New England Inter-collegiate Soccer Assoc.

The N.H. College Ski was founded four years ago by some dedicated skiers, Gordon Woolner and Wendover Neefus. Through their efforts they obtained financing and thus we had a competitive team to face other New England Colleges. During the four years the team has accumulated championships and has moved to a larger league. Howard Corsack offered to serve as coach, putting in many hours of work to benefit the team. Some of the members who have played an important part have been Wendy Neefus, John Van Santvoord, Tiny Curn, Al Hall and Joe Plazzi.

Though they lost to Franklin Pierce 93-88 in an overtime thriller in the finals of the New England Intercollegiate Basketball Association playoffs, and ended the season with a 17-8 record, the N.H.C. basketball team closed out their most successful season this year in terms of competition.

It was the first season in which the Penman played an all four-year college schedule; it was the year in which N.H.C. athletics were sanctioned by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics; it was a year that saw the Penaman face such competition as Loyola of Montreal, and Western New England College.

Basketball has become big time at New Hampshire College.

The New Hampshire College of Accounting and Commerce Student Senate acts as the official governing body and representative of the student body of the College. Officers are: Lawrence Kelley, President, Tony Lambert, Vice-President, Denise Milinovich, Secretary, George Towle, Treasurer, Larry Lee, Parliamentarian. The Student Senate has been operating under its present constitution for two years and during this time has expanded its role within the College and to other colleges in New England. The Student Senate is responsible for the supervision of all clubs and organizations and maintains, through it's Mayor's Council, a social calendar. It is responsible for the successful planning of three major college weekends, and conducts all student body elections.

The Executive Council of the Student Senate is made up of the officers of the Senate and is responsible for the successful functioning of the Senate Constitution. A main goal of the Council this year was gaining admittance to a national Student Senate or Student Government Association on collegiate level.

The Mayor' campaign is conducted in the spring of year and all organizations on campus may sponsor a junior. Each candidate must assume the character of a cartoon personality for a week. This year "Annie Fanny" and "Popeye" battled for votes with "Popeye" and his spinich coming through. The Mayor also has a Council to help set up the social calendar for the next year. The Mayor and his Council are responsible for Parent's Weekend, also held in the spring.

The New Hampshire College Program Committee brings to the College speakers of notable and significant value for the student body.

The Committee is composed of three Faculty and Three student members: Thomas Martin, Chairman, Curtis Walton, William Sweet, Dr. Roland Gibson, Mrs. Mary Brown, Mr. Alan Berzofsky.

During the year they brought speakers tuned to the times, such as:

- Dick Gregory—Civil Rights
- Max Lerner—New York Post
- Craig Spence—War Correspondent
- Dr. Sidney Cohen—LSD authority
- Dr. Timothy Leary—LSD proponent.

Also, during the year the College was visited by many candidates for the first in the nation presidential primary.

Max Lerner talking on "American Civilization in the Stormy Present."

Dr. Tim Leary held the audience enthralled with his opinions of life in the present as Dr. Sidney Cohen looks on bemused.

The Executive Club is now in its second year of bringing members in direct contact with successful business leaders to enhance their business education. This is done by monthly dinner meetings with lecture and informal discussion.

Officers include: Thomas Martin, President; Curtis Walton, Vice-President; John Wood, Treasurer; Fred McDowell, Secretary.

Topics have included:

How sweet a new daughter can be.

College life for some students is not merely going to classes and back to the dorm, but many are married, with families. Some decide to go back to college after the service, or after a few years of working. All maintain homes which provide additional worries. Some marry in college. Wives work to put husbands through, husbands work to support the family. Oh, what a rat race.

That's not the way Mom does it Daddy.

Words of admiration and affection we cannot even begin to express; as she has given us her unlimited time and patience. Because of her enthusiasm, we have been aided in our quest for knowledge in all levels of our education. A few lines can only hint at the respect we hold for her. We, the Class of 1968, take great pride and sincerity in dedicating ACCUMULATION '68 to Mrs. Beatrice Jordan, Librarian.

President Shapiro Addressing the Class of 1968 at Graduation.

You are entering a world beset with turmoil; a world that no longer accepts the values of the past, but questions each new endeavor with fresh thought in a desire to make every change a meaningful change for every individual.

It is also a world that welcomes youth. It needs your enthusiasm, your courage, your dedication and commitment to your personal success and the successful continuation of our society.

It is an awesome responsibility and I hope you have prepared well for it. If you have taken full advantage of your years at New Hampshire College, the time you have spent educating yourselves will be rewarded many times throughout your life.

Congratulations and best wishes.
