Spring Break in Greece
March 15 - March 23

While some students were traveling down to Cancun or Florida, a group of 23 SNHU students were on their way to spend nine days in Greece. After spending the first night in Athens, they boarded The Emerald, a 1,100 passenger cruise ship. Three days were spent on the ship cruising to three Greek Islands: Mykonos, Rhodes, and Patmos. Followed by a quick stop in Kosadasi, Turkey. During this time, the students saw a medieval town, climbed the Acropolis in Lindos, bartered with store owners at a Turkish bazaar, and soaked in all the Aegean Sea had to offer. They also traveled to the ancient city of Delphi to view the sacred Temple of Apollo. Next, off to Epidaurus to see the Sanctuary of Asklepios, which is said to be the most celebrated healing centers of the ancient world, in addition to having a magnificent theater build around 360 BC.
Alternative Spring Break

March 18 - March 25

A group of 15 students and 2 staff spent Spring Break helping rebuild in the Gulf Coast after the devastation of Hurricane's Katrina and Rita. The group spent their vacation in Pecan Island, Louisiana, a small community on the gulf. The week was spent doing a variety of activities that included cleaning debris, doing home demolition, and painting.

Volleyball

The women’s volleyball team owned an 8-10 record late in the season, but won just one of its final six matches and closed out the year with a 9-16 overall record. A 4-10 mark in the Northeast-10 Conference denied the Penmen a bid to the eight-team conference championship tournament. Things looked promising early on, as the team won four of its first seven matches, but a five-game losing streak midway through the season proved to much to overcome. Highlights of the season included a 3-2 victory over Franklin Pierce and a 3-2 victory over Stonehill. The Penmen also posted league wins over Assumption, Saint Michael's and Southern Connecticut.

Senior Brittany Porter led the team in kills (309) and blocks (79) for the fourth-straight season and recorded her 1,000th career kill during the 3-2 win over Franklin Pierce. Porter closed out her career with a school-record 1,167 kills and 327 blocks. Her efforts earned her a spot on the NE-10 All-Academic Team for the second-straight year. Porter, along with fellow seniors Deanna Guenther and Allison Cata, closed out their careers.

Men's Soccer

The Men's Soccer team won eight of its first 13 games and closed out the year with a 10-7-2 overall record and a 6-5-2 mark in the Northeast-10 Conference. The Penmen posted wins over NCAA Tournament participants Dominican College and Franklin Pierce College during the regular season, and also rolled to a 6-1 victory over cross-town rival Saint Anselm College. SNHU earned a bid to the Northeast-10 Conference Tournament, but suffered a 1-0 loss to Franklin Pierce in the opening round.

Several players collected post-season honors. Junior midfielder David McGuire was named first All-America by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA), and also earned first NSCAA All-Region and first-team All Northeast-10 honors. McGuire scored a team-high 10 goals and totaled a team-high 21 points during the year. Senior defender Rickey Layne was voted second-team All-Region and first team All NE-10, while senior forward Jeremy Bradshaw, senior midfielder Romelle Burroughs, and senior defender Sherwin Merryman all earned second-team All-NE-10 honors. Layne, McGuire and junior Bobby Dufour were also selected to the NE-10 All-Academic team. Seniors Romelle Burgess, Carney, Joel Forde, Rickey Layne, Sherwin Merryman and Matt Willey all closed out their careers.

The Women's Soccer team won five of its final six games and closed out the year with a 9-8-2 overall record and a 7-5-2 mark in the Northeast-10 Conference. SNHU posted a 1-0 victory over nationally-ranked Merrimack, its first win over the Warriors since the 1997 season, early in the year and also battled nationally-ranked Saint Rose to a 1-1 OT tie. The Penmen earned the seventh seeded in the Northeast Tournament, but suffered a 1-0 loss to nationally-ranked Assumption College in the opening round.

Senior Nikki Cote, junior Carolyn Mahoney and sophomore Laurie Boland all earned third-team Northeast-10 Conference honors. Boland, Mahoney and junior Lauren Mackay were also named to the NE-10 All-Academic Team. Boland totaled a team-high 17 points during the year, while Cote netted team-high seven goals and totaled 16 points. Women's Cross Country

The Women's Cross Country team took part in five regular-season meets and two post-season meets during the 2005 season. The team opened the year with a first-place showing at the Castleton State College Invitational and also had a strong showing at the Gordon College Pop Crowell Invitational, placing out of 20 schools. The team placed 12th at the Northeast-10 Conference championship, which was held by Bryant University, and also took part in the NCAA Northeast Regional at Franklin Park in Boston.

Freshman Kaitlyn Direnzo and senior Alice Field paced the team all season. Direnzo placed first among SNHU runners in four of the seven meets, while Field was the top SNHU runner in the other three meets. Direnzo placed 60th out of 198 runners with a season-best time of 22:22 at the Pop Crowell Invitational and also placed fourth overall at the season-opening Castleton State Invitational with a time of 22:36. Field posted a personal-best time of 22:02 and placed 47th out of 198 runners at the Pop Crowell Invitational. She also finished 24th out of 50 runners at the Saint Anselm Shacklette Invitational. Freshman Svea Dellea-Messner also enjoyed a solid rookie season and recorded a season-best time of 22:56 at the Pop Crowell Invitational.

The Men’s Cross Country team took part in five regular-season meets and two post-season meets during the season. The team opened the year with a first-place showing at the Castleton State College Invitational and had a strong showing at the Gordon College Pop Crowell Invitational, placing fifth out of 21 schools. They placed 12th at the Northeast-10 Conference championship, which was hosted by Bryant University, and also part in the NCAA Northeast Regional at Franklin Park in Boston.

Graduate student Sean Griffin closed out his career in fine fashion, as he placed first among SNHU runners in every event and posted a school-record time of 27:57 at the Pop Crowell Invitational. He also posted a time of 29:05 at the NEICAAA Championship, which ranks as the ninth fastest time in program history. Griffin owns six of top-ten finishes in program history. Freshmen Alex Brown and Alex Hansen both enjoyed solid rookie seasons. Brown posted a season-best time of 29:05 at the NEICAAA Championship and placed 35th out of 197 runners at the Pop Crowell Invitational with a time of 29:15. Hansen placed 36th at the Pop Crowell Invitation with a season-best time of 29:18. Griffin, along with seniors Eric Monty and Fred Wills all closed out their careers.

Ice Hockey

The Southern New Hampshire University hockey team won seven of its first 12 games, overcame a season slump and went on to win five of its final six regular-season games. The Penmen finished the regular-season with a 12-9-4 overall record and claimed their first-ever Northeast-10 Conference regular-season title after posting a 4-1-0 league record. SNHU was seeded first in the NE-10 Tournament and advanced to the championship game for the second-straight year following a 6-3 win over Saint Michael’s in the semifinals. A first-ever NE-10 Tournament championship was not to be, as the Penmen fell to defending champion Saint Anselm, 5-3, in the title game before a capacity crowd at The Ice Den.

The highlight of the season was a 4-3 overtime victory over Saint Anselm on Feb. 7th, which marked SNHU’s first-ever victory over its cross-town rival.

Sophomore Brandon Hammermeister led the team with 31 points (14 gls, 17 asts) and collected second-team all-league honors for the second-straight year. Additional production came from newcomer Don DiMarzo (16 gls, 9 asts) and junior Chet Riley (11 gls, 15 asts). Senior captain Chris White totaled 35 points and closed out his four-year career with 102 points in 106 games. Seniors Brent Bousquet, Joe Hurley, Ryan Deery, Tim Fewster and Martin Stehl also saw their SNHU careers come to an end.

Men's Basketball

The Southern New Hampshire University men's basketball team enjoyed yet another successful season under the direction of long-time head coach Stan Spirou. The Penmen won 12 of their first 16 games, closed out the year with an 18-11 overall record and a 13-9 mark in the Northeast-10 Conference. SNHU earned its sixth-straight bid to the NE-10 Tournament and advanced to the tournament quarterfinals following an 83-70 win over Pace in the opening round. A 70-67 loss to nationally-ranked Stonehill College in the quarterfinals brought the season to an end and denied SNHU its fourth-straight appearance in the NCAA Division II Tournament.

Senior captains Miguel Gonzalez, P.J. Young and John Baiano paced the team all season. Gonzalez was the team in scoring (17.5 ppg) and collected second-team all-league honors for the second-straight year. He was also named second-team All-Region. Young, a third-team all-league pick, ranked second on the team in scoring (13.0 ppg) and led the NE-10 in rebounding (9.2 rpg). Baino started every game at point guard for the fourth-straight year and closed out his career as the program leader in career steals (291). Sophomore center Sam Carey also enjoyed a solid season, as he started 28 of 29 games and averaged 10.5 points and 5.3 rebounds. Seniors Matt Catabia and Patrick Mokuba also saw their SNHU careers come to an end.

Women's Basketball

The women's basketball team enjoyed its most successful season in years under the direction of first head coach Karen Pinkos. The Penmen won five of their final 10 regular-season games—including pressive wins over regionally-ranked Bentley College and Franklin Pierce College and nationally-ranked Stonehill College—and earned their first-ever bid to the Northeast-10 Conference Tournament. A heartbreaking 58-57 loss to Bentley in the opening round of the playoffs brought the season to an end, but everyone looking forward to more success in 2006-07. SNHU finished the year with a 9-19 overall record and a 7-15 mark in the NE-10. The nine wins were the most since 1991-92, while the seven league wins were the most since SNHU joined the NE-10 in 2000-01.

Additional highlights of the season included SNHU's first-ever season-sweep of cross town rival St. Anselm, and a 65-60 victory over New York Tech on Dec. 3 that gave coach Pinkos her first career victory. Senior Chrissy Griffith closed out her career in style, as she led the team in scoring and rebounding, became the first SNHU player since 1996-97 to total 200 or more rebounds in a season. Sophomores Giannopoulou, Sara Tucker and Danielle Graunke also enjoyed solid seasons, while freshmen Steph Houghton and Alyssa Whitney made immediate contributions.

Baseball

Things looked promising early on for the Southern New Hampshire University baseball team during the 2006 season, but a late-season slide denied the Penmen their first-ever appearance in the Northeast Conference Tournament. The team won 15 of its first 21 games, but lost eight of its next 10 games and closed out the year with a 20-22 overall record (11-19 NE-10). The team did post its first 20-win season since 1995.

Seniors Chad Lawrence and Tony Aucoin and sophomore Ryan Thompson paced the Penmen at the plate. Lawrence batted a team-high .317 and collected third-team all-conference honors. Aucoin ranked second on the team in hits (44) and led the team in RBI (17), while Thompson totaled a team-high 47 hits and 21 runs. The pitching staff posted a team ERA of 2.94 and four of the team’s five starters posted an ERA lower than 3.00. Freshman Jim Fuller posted a 4-1 record and led the team in ERA (1.11) and strikeouts (62). He earned third-team all-conference honors. Senior Casey O’Brien started a team-high 10 games, went 4-4 with a 1.59 ERA and 47 strikeouts. He closed out his four-year ranked third in career strikeouts (123) and first in career ERA (3.06). Aucoin, Lawrence, O’Brien and fellow seniors Tom Boisjolie, Ingraham, Joe Johnson, Wayne Parker and Adam Trussell saw their SNHU careers come to an end.

Softball

The Southern New Hampshire University softball team overcame a tough start to the 2006 season and went on to set a program record for wins in a season and make its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II Tournament. The team lost games during a season-opening trip to Florida during spring break, but opened its northern schedule by winning 10 of its first 11 games, including doubleheader sweeps of rival Saint Anselm and regional power Le Moyne College. The team closed out the regular season with a 21-19 overall record, and placed third in the Northeast-10 Conference with a 20-8 league record. The team qualified for the NE-10 Tournament for the first time since SNHU joined the league in 2000, and also earned its first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The team went 2-1 during the NCAA Regional, but heavy rains throughout the weekend forced schedule changes and denied SNHU a shot at winning the regional title. SNHU recorded its first-ever NCAA Tournament win following a 2-1 win over nationally-ranked Caldwell College, and also posted a 9-0 victory over Queens during the regional. SNHU posted a season record of 23-22.

Senior Nikki Cote, junior Felicia Brum and freshman Karissa Bettencourt paced the offense all season. Cote established a new program record for hits in a season (47) and closed out her four-year career as the program’s all-time leader in career hits (137) and games played (153). She earned second-team all-conference honors and was also named to the NCAA Regional all-tournament team. Brum ranked second on the team in batting average (.331) and hits (45) and led the team in doubles (13) and RBI (28). Bette posted a team-best batting average of .347 and established a new record for hits by a freshman (42). Junior Ashley Smith and freshman Ashley Bernstein anchored the pitching staff. Smith posted a 12-9 record and a 1.86 ERA, and also led the team in strikeouts. A second-team all-conference pick, she recorded her 200th career strikeout during the season and will enter her senior year second in career strikeouts (210) among SNHU’s all-time leaders. Bernstein posted a 10-9 record with a 2.77 ERA and a team-high four shutouts. She tossed a complete-game one-hitter in SNHU’s NCAA Tournament win over Caldwell and was named to the Regional all-tournament team. Cote and fellow senior Lindsey Yeomans saw their SNHU careers come to an end.

Men’s Tennis

The Southern New Hampshire University men’s tennis team closed out the year with a 5-8 overall record and a 4-6 mark in the Northeast-10 Conference. The Penmen qualified for the NE-10 Tournament for the third-straight year, but were eliminated in the opening round by top-seeded Assumption College. Highlights of the season included wins over in-state rivals Franklin Pierce and Saint Anselm and a near upset of Bryant University (L 5-4) in the regular-season finale.

Junior Pedro De Paula turned in an outstanding season and collected third-team all-conference honors. He posted a 9-3 overall record at No. 1 singles, and also teamed up with freshman Luis Ramirez to go 6-9 at No. 1 doubles. Ramirez had a solid freshman season, going 5-4 at No. 2 singles. Seniors Brian Hasi, Chris Bui, Kevin Cullen and Pat dias saw their SNHU careers come to an end.

Men's Lacrosse

The Southern New Hampshire University men's lacrosse team closed out the 2006 season with a 6-9 overall record and a 5-5 mark in the Northeast-10 Conference. The Penmen advanced to the six-team 10 Tournament for the third-straight year, but suffered a 13-8 loss to nationally-ranked Bryant University in the opening round. Six of the team's eight losses came against nationally-ranked programs. Highlight of the season included an 8-5 win over Pace, the program's first-ever victory over Pace, and an 8-7 win over cross-town rival Saint Anselm College. The Penmen also nearly upset nationally-ranked Merrimack College late in the year, falling 14-13 to the eighth-ranked Warriors.

Junior Joe Young and newcomer John Delanoy paced the offense all season. Young totaled a team-high 32 goals and 52 points and became the first SNHU player to total 50 points in a season since 2002, also recording his 100th career point during the year. Delanoy totaled 31 goals and 44 points and collected first-team all-conference honors. Juniors Jon Habel (37 pts) and Ben Lanman (18 pts) and sophomore Spencer Rennick (28 pts) and Chris Dindler (20 pts) also produced. Senior defender Mike Hutnick earned second-team all-conference honors for the second-straight year. Women's Lacrosse

2006 was a magical and historical season for the Southern New Hampshire University women's lacrosse program. The team won five of its first seven games, and after suffering losses to nationally-ranked Stonehill and Bryant, the Penmen closed out the year with wins over Saint Michael's and Southern Connecticut. The team closed out the regular season with a 7-4 overall record, and placed fourth in the Northeast-10 Conference with a 6-4 league mark. In just its third season as a varsity sport, SNHU had posted its first winning season and had qualified for the six-team NE-10 Tournament. Highlights of the season included a 14-13 victory over cross-town rival Saint Anselm, a 13-8 victory over Saint Michael's, and a thrilling 12-11 triple overtime win over Bentley in the opening round of the NE-10 Tournament. The Penmen were seeded fifth in the tournament semifinals and closed out the year with an 8-5 overall record.

A trio of talented freshmen paced the offense all season. Maura Murphy totaled six goals in the playoff win over Bentley and closed out the year with a program record 46 goals and 56 points. Libby Parent ranked second on the team in 37 assists (16) and points (53) and collected second-team all-conference honors. Jennifer Parro set a new program record for assists in a season (20) and also totaled 22 goals and 42 points. Additional offense came from sophomore Downey (26 pts), seniors Steph O'Neil (17 pts) and Mary Behrens (16 pts) and freshman Julie Kraus (14 pts). Senior Lisa McEachern started all 13 games in goal and was honored as first-team all-conference and NE-10 Co-Goalkeeper of the Year. McEachern, O'Neil, Behrens and fellow seniors Steph Bouley, Leslie Ransome and Lindsay Frydryk saw SNHU careers come to an end.

The Southern New Hampshire University golf team put together a solid 2005-06 season and capped the campaign by qualifying to the NCAA Division II Tournament for the second time since the program was reinstated as a varsity sport in 2000. The Penmen placed third out of 12 teams at the Northeast Conference Tournament in September, and followed with a first-place showing at the ECAC Division Championship. It marked the first-ever ECAC title for the Penmen, who finished first out of 20 schools. Highlights of the spring portion of the schedule included a first-place showing at the UMass Lowell Falcon Invitational and a third-place finish at the Le Moyne College Spring Invitational.

Senior Adam Goinsalvos enjoyed a solid final season with the program. He took low medalist honors at the UMass Lowell tournament and placed second out of 45 golfers at the NCAA Northeast Regional. Senior Sam Natti placed third at the Northeast-10 Tournament and collected all-conference honors, while brother, junior Ed Natti collected NEIGA All New England honors after placing fourth among Division II golfers at the NEIGA Championship. Goinsalvos, Natti and fellow senior Jason Greene concluded their careers with the SNHU golf team.

"To dream anything that you want to dream. That is the beauty of the human mind. To do anything that you want to do. That is the strength of the human will. To trust yourself to test your limits. That is the courage to succeed."

~ Bernard Edmonds

(Excerpt taken from the SNHU Student Address)

"When you smile, be sure to smile wide. When you laugh, be sure to laugh out loud, cause it will carry all of your cares away. When you walk, walk with pride. When you dream, dream big, as big as the ocean blue. Cause when you dream, it might come true, so when you dream, dream big."
