You have the freedom to be yourself here and now
Here and now,
one self becomes many "Selves" —
Student,
sorority sister,
athlete,
dramatic actress,
business intern,
student teacher . . .
many roles are tried, some related to our goals, others not ...
But each enriching the whole person that exists here and now.
Life is . . . ups, downs, turn-arounds, Octoberfest, term papers, Springthing, listening, laughing, loving.
Friends are . . . everywhere . . .
in classrooms, at games, in the way, unavoidable, and beautiful;
Some “Special” where sharing a room, together walking, under a tree some friends are "just you and me."
Here, free, alive, playing chess, running track, kissing, hugging, smiling.
YEARNBOOK DEDICATION
CLASS OF 1974
to

CHARLES L. WILBERT
Assistant Professor of English
BA University of Pennsylvania
MA Ohio University

A quiet man — humble, unassuming, tremendously kind and generous with his time, talent, and efforts — always concerned with students and all with whom he comes in contact — to Charles Wilbert, the NHC Class of 1974 dedicates its yearbook.

Mr. Wilbert, in his six years at New Hampshire College, has been a favorite teacher. He has given his students a love of language and literature. He has organized a drama group and has written, directed, and produced several plays each year.

He came to the college from a career in social work. Our class is sincerely grateful that Mr. Wilbert has furthered his social concern in teaching at NHC.

We have profited from his influence.

Would the Campus Ever Operate Without Them?
Es war einmal ein König.
Man sagte er sei wünschenswert.
Er war doch so schlau,
Er nahm eine Frau.
Und feierte durch's ganze Oktober.

Die Münchner so genossen das Fest,
Dass vom Bier gab schließlich kein Rest.
Das Fest ist jährlich in München gehalten,
Und diesmal liess es sich in Manchester veranstalten.

There was at one time a king.
They said he may have been crazy.
But he was clever enough.
That he took a wife.
And celebrated for all of October.

The people of Munich so enjoyed the festival,
That at its end there was no more beer.
The festival is held every year in Munich,
And has now been begun in Manchester.

ACCREDITATION CELEBRATION

On December 13, 1973, New Hampshire College was formally elected to membership in the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc. This was the final step in a three year process which began with the college's request for candidacy in the fall of 1970. As a member of the Association, the college is now regionally accredited and has been judged by its peers "to be achieving its purposes and objectives in accordance with established standards."

The visiting team commented most favorably on the loyalty and positive attitudes of both faculty and students toward New Hampshire College. While the college's past growth and achievements are a strong bellwether for its future success, its regional accreditation will help to provide a more fruitful environment for the continued development of its academic programs.
Thanksgiving Dinner

Mrs. Shapiro
Dear Madam:

My name is George Gamasche and my wife's name is Bernadette. She is 73 years of age and I am 76. We were guests of yours Sunday, November Eighteenth, and I am writing to tell you how we appreciated everything.

We wish to thank you and the Fraternities and Sororities of New Hampshire College for this lovely dinner and entertainment.

From the Master of Ceremony, the two-man band, the girl soloist, (I apologize here, as I do not know their names), the waiters and waitresses, they were perfect hosts, and I must add the word WONDERFUL of them, and all of the people who attended the affair and that we had the opportunity to talk with, all had the same words of praise for the students who put on the Thanksgiving dinner.

With the kind of youth that we have today, the future of our country will be in very good hands.

Thanks a million to you Mrs. Shapiro, and here I might add, with that kind of management, it is no wonder that New Hampshire College has grown so rapidly. I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you all again.

Sincerely,

George and Bernadette
Gamasche

Thanks to every one of you! And I'm not sure these words of mine
It was grand of you to be Can tell you how I feel.
So very nice and thoughtful— But my thanks and appreciation
So wonderful to me. Are very deep and felt.

God Bless you all.

Kappa Delta Phi is a national, professional, educational fraternity. Fraternity life could descriptively be called a learning experience in human relations—a training for group life. For the student, college life is a home away from home, but for the Kappa Delta man it is a home that is very special. It is filled with rituals, meetings, group ventures, projects, and sentiments which bind initiated members.

Kappa Delta Phi’s Brotherhood is the result of respect and sincere interest and concern for one’s fellows. Kappa seeks to develop qualities of humor, understanding, and leadership both on and off the campus.

Here I stand
At the threshold
Of a new life.
It's scary now...
I look back for a moment,
and remember
the good times,
the all-night sessions
in the computer room,
the beer blasts,
the Smokers,
putting finishing touches
(rush-rush) on a term paper ten minutes
AFTER it's (dammit) due, and running to class — out of breath!
Stopping for a second to feel the fresh air,
to smell the breeze, (mmmmmnnnnn)
to breathe in the natural surroundings that have become so familiar.
It's time to leave now...
a new way,
a larger world...
MY WORLD...
The 1974 New Hampshire College's Yearbook represents the individual, the student. We have tried to capture the student in his life styles, whether it be studying, working, drinking, socializing, sporting, or streaking.

Many ideas were created when selecting copy, pictures, and design.

I would like to extend my sincerest gratitude to my dedicated staff. Special appreciation goes to Charlie Brewester, Assistant Editor, who did most of the leg work in collecting materials and Nick Brattan, Photographer, for his fine photography. Special thanks to Professor Mary Brown and Dr. James Grace for their assistance.

A warm thank you goes to John Flanagan, representative of the American Yearbook, for his endless help and creative ideas.

As for myself, I enjoyed it.
