Cynthia — This One’s For You

One day in January, 1976, I became editor of the New Hampshire College Yearbook. I stumbled into the Student Activities Office and to my amazement I found a very pleasant secretary who knew more about the Yearbook than I did. I had no idea that this woman would become a "Second Mother."

Cynthia Levine is everyone’s "Second Mother." Every student who deals with the Student Activities Office is her son or daughter. She listens to their problems and gripes and jokes around. She creates a pleasant atmosphere, so the students do not feel alienated when they enter the office.

At the publication of this book, New Hampshire College will have lost Cynthia to the sun and fun of Florida. So as editor, I dedicate this book to Cynthia Levine.

... And these I see, these sparkling eyes,
These stores of mystic meaning, these yound lives,
Building, equipping like a fleet of ships, immortal ships,
Soon to sail out over the measureless seas,
On the soul's voyage.

friendship, buds and blossoms
like summer in full dress,
friendship brings a harvest
of joy and happiness.
friendship is sustaining
through winter, wind and snows;
friendship can't be hoarded;
by being shared, it grows!
