New Hampshire College
Class Of 1991
Students At Work

During our four years at NHC, we have witnessed growth in the school and in ourselves. We are the first class that President Gustafson has witnessed straight through the freshman jitters and onto the pomp and circumstance. We endured the hardships of North Campus isolation and that diesel monster called, "School Special" that shuttle shuttled us back and forth. We hung out in the quad only seconds before class began. We ate copious amounts of popcorn watching Monday night football in the pub with a cool 10 oz. cup of beer in our hand. We dreaded the "Proficiency" and the Institutional writing exam. We pledged fraternities and sororities. From the Crew Club to the Organization for International Students, we saw how our individual and team contributions made a positive impact on our campus. We tossed frisbees on the soccer field, blared music through our open windows, bathed in the sun and relaxed on those beautiful days. On the snowy ones, we even sketched on the back of our 3 x 4 AND PARKING TICKETS.

Don't worry, its the school's money.

In The Quad

We cleaned the cobwebs out of our mail boxes making sure they were still empty. We wore our yellow ribbons to support our troops in the gulf. We became more conscientious of our environment with events like Earth Day and our Red Barrel recycling program.

We loved the food and how our snack bar sandwiches were just how we wanted them, if only we had ordered them that day. We cheered our sports teams from the sidelines through victory and defeat, and how our teams achieve regional and national status. We played in intramural and intercollegiate sports. We travelled to foreign countries and cultures.

Now Dave, How could you not want her?

Geez! That was an exciting class.

Crystal, nice Critter Sitter!

Is that where our money went?
Five guys taking a fashion risk.

How long do we have to stand here?
Student Life

We’ll never forget (or is it remember?) our hangouts, The Salty Dog, LaCantina, Crystal’s, BTC’s, The Irish Pub, Kristophers, Pablo’s for punches, Kahula Palace (R.I.P.) for Scorpion Bowls, and bowling and dancing at Reflections. We held hands and silently said goodbye to our NHC family members whom we loved and lost. We had our heads measured for our caps and gave our size for our gowns.

But most importantly, we formed friendships and memories that will last well beyond our NHC years.

Sports

Athletics was one of the ways the class of 1991 began to work together as a team. Tryouts, long practices and the many games gave us a chance to show our pride in NHC. Team work, dedication and compromise brought out great friendships that will last a lifetime.
The Sideline

For the fifth-straight year the NHC men’s soccer team participated in the NCAA Division II Championship Tournament, unfortunately a first round loss to the University of Bridgeport ended the Penmen’s hopes of repeating as national champions.

NHC posted a final record of 15-7-0 and was ranked 17th in the final Division II national poll. After winning just five of their first nine contests, the Penmen rebounded to win 10 of their remaining 11 games and finish the regular season at 15-5-0. Two straight one-goal losses to Bridgeport, first in the NECC Tournament and then in the NCAAs, would bring the season to an abrupt end.

“It was a tough season,” commented NHC coach John Rootes. “We had some injuries to key players and just were unable to get the big goals when we needed them.”

Coach John Rootes, who posted his 50th career victory against Bridgeport on Oct. 6, concludes his third season at NHC with a career record of 50-10-2.

The Sideline

The 1990 season saw the NHC women's soccer team outscore its opponents 54-11, compile a record of 17-3-2 and finish the year ranked No. 5 in the national Division II poll. In addition, the Lady Penmen advanced to the finals to the ECAC Championship Tournament for the third straight year. Unfortunately a third straight title was not to be, as Southampton College upset NHC for its first ever ECAC championship. The game was decided by a best-of-five penalty kick shoot out, (which Southampton won 3-1) after the two teams had battled to a scoreless tie through 90 minutes of regulation and 60 minutes of overtime.

Post-season honors were numerous for the Lady Penmen, as a total of seven players were named to the NEWISA All-New England Team. First team honors went to Wisniowski, Blodgett and Cashman, while Olson, Papetti, Petretta and Friebel were named to the second team.

"The offense clicked from day one and the defense did a super job of shutting down our opponents all year long."

The NHC volleyball team struggled through the fall season, as the volleyball team finished with a dual match record of 1-16. The team was led by a first-year coach who is promising a change for the better in 1991.

“Our problem was not a lack of desire but a lack of bodies,” commented NHC coach Terry Bailey in reference to his team’s roster that consisted of just eight players. “I have already begun recruiting for next season and I am excited about the future of volleyball at NHC.”

“Our problem was not a lack of desire but a lack of bodies.”
-Coach Terry Bailey

Juniors Heidi Duclos (Ashland, NH), Debbie Laurion (Alton, NH) and Erin Boyle (Manchester, NH) provided the leadership for the team all season and gave Bailey a solid nucleus to build around. Freshman Brenda Mallett (New Ipswich, NH) enjoyed a successful season as did juniors Julie Chiasson (Waltham, MA) and Cathy Parker (Burlington, VT)

Although the New Hampshire College men's basketball team wasn't able to top its record-breaking season of a year ago, it was able to secure a post-season bid for the second straight year with its invitation to the 1991 Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Division II Championship Tournament. The Penmen advanced to the tournament championship game with a 97-89 victory over Adelphi University in the semifinals. An 82-76 loss to tournament host and defending champion Pace University in the title game denied NHC its first ever ECAC title. NHC finished the year with an overall record of 19-12 and a 7-7 mark in the New England Collegiate Conference.

Halfway through the season the Penmen had compiled a 12-3 record and appeared to be on their way to a second straight appearance in the NCAA Division II Championship Tournament. Unfortunately the Penmen managed just five victories in their final 12 regular season games, and then were knocked out of the NCAA Tournament race with an 82-68 loss to Franklin Pierce College in the semifinals of the NECC Tournament.

Highlights of the season included victories over conference rivals Franklin Pierce and Keene State in the first Day's Inn Granite State Classic, a first place showing in the Florida Atlantic University Holiday Shootout and a 90-72 decision of cross-town rival St. Anselm College.

The Sideline

The New Hampshire College women's basketball team capped off the 1990-91 season in fine fashion by winning its first ever Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Division II Championship. NHC downed tournament host West Chester University 60-59, in the finals to claim the title.

The Lady Penmen struggled through the first half of the season, posting just seven victories in their first 15 games. After opening the season with losses in three of its first four games, NHC put together a four-game winning streak and took first place in the NHC Holiday classic. An impressive 90-72 victory over nationally ranked Lock Haven University earned the Lady Penmen the tournament championship. The celebration was short lived though, as NHC dropped its next four games, the last of which a tough 78-57 setback at the hands of cross-town rival St. Anselm College.

An inspired come-from-behind victory over conference rival Keene State College broke the losing streak and marked the turning point of the season for NHC. The Lady Penmen went on to win 12 of their last 18 games, finish with a respectable 18-13 overall record, advance to the NECC Tournament championship game for the second straight year and capture the ECAC title.

"I was very pleased with the way the team came together and performed after losing three starters from last year's team," remarked NHC coach Nancy Dreffs. "The veterans provided a lot of leadership and the newcomers contributed a great deal and will benefit from the experience in the long run."

The good news is the New Hampshire College hockey team recorded its second straight winning season with a 10-7-4 overall record. The bad news is a late season slump prevented the Penmen from earning a bid to Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) playoffs.

NHC opened the season with victories over Nichols (6-3), Stonehill (4-1), Plymouth State (6-4) and St. Michael's (4-2), and finished the first half of the season undefeated with a 5-0-3 record; good enough for fourth place in the ECAC North standings.

Things continued to go the Penmen's way after the Christmas break as they won four of their six games during the month of January and owned an impressive 9-2-3 record with seven games remaining. Unfortunately, NHC went 1-5-1 in its last seven games, dropped from fifth to seventh place in the ECAC North standings and was eliminated from post-season play.

Not only will the members of the class of 1991 be leaving NHC with diplomas, they will also be leaving it with something that wasn’t there before: CREW!

The crew club was established by class of 1991 graduate Wendy Harland in the Fall of 1988. Several other NHC students and faculty helped to organize the club which competes with other colleges and universities. It even won the “Best Club” award in 1990.

Fundraising in smokey bingo halls, walking boats into a 30 degree Merri-mack River and listening to a coach chasing you in his motor boat yelling, “Slow your slide!” through a megaphone at 5:00 in the morning is not most people’s idea of fun. However, the students who join crew and are able to stick it out know that the benefits from it all far outweigh the hardships.

The class of 1991 founders have watched a bunch of confused group of “rowers” wearing mismatched outfits and sitting in big, leaky, wooden boats rowing all over the river become an organized team of matching, synchronized, powerful ROWERS sitting in brand new, (light) fiberglass boats winning ribbons and trophies. There was a lot of dedication and hard work involved in the club’s success, but the outcome is one that the founders can be proud of.

These pictures show the first four semesters of rowing at NHC. they show the mismatched, old, creaky, wooden boats paddled by basically “clueless” rowers with wooden oars. But they also show the matching, new, fast fiberglass boats powered by experienced rowers with carbon fiber oars.

The class of 1991 will be remembered at NHC for many things and one of them will be the establishment of the crew club. They have not only left their mark at NHC, but with their competitors as well. And they have also left a tradition to be carried out by many classes to come.

It was business as usual for the NHC men’s tennis team, as it recorded yet another winning season under longtime coach Jack Putney.

The Penmen dropped their season opener to St. Michael's, but responded with three straight victories over St. Anselm, Lowell and Assumption, losing just one match in the process. A 6-3 loss that Plymouth state ended the winning streak, but would prove to be the final setback of the season. NHC closed out the season with victories over Stonehill, New England College, Merrimack, Emerson and Western New England. The team finished the season with a 8-2 record.

The women’s tennis team struggled through the fall season, winless with a mark of 0-8. The team was led by a first year coach who promises a change for the better in 1991. The team had a lack of bodies, but two top players are returning next year and the freshmen have been showing signs of improvement by the end of the 1990 season.

The NHC lacrosse team secured its third straight winning season with a 13-9 victory over Western New England College in its season finale.

The Penmen opened the season with a 13-12 victory over Assumption College, as they netted five unanswered goals in the final five minutes of play to pull out the win. NHC dropped two of its next three games before putting together a string of victories over Curry College (17-6), the University of New England (18-1) and UMass-Boston (15-9) for a 5-2 mark at the halfway point of the season. A heartbreaking 14-10 loss to rival Plymouth State College snapped the winning streak, and was followed by an 18-8 setback to Merrimack and a tough 11-9 loss to New England college. The Penmen recorded their sixth win of the season with a 21-4 drubbing of Castleton State College. The team finished the season with a 7-5 record.

A doubleheader sweep of Franklin Pierce College capped off the 1991 season, and earned the Penmen a fourth place showing in the competitive New England Collegiate conference.

NHC opened the season at the Flagler College First City Classic in St. Augustine, Fla. Playing five games in seven days took its toll on the pitching staff, and the Penmen finished the four-team tournament with a 2-5 record. After going winless in its first four northern games, NHC put together a four-games winning streak and stood at 6-8-1 at the midway point of the season. The Penmen managed just five wins in their final 14 contests, all of which came against NECC opponents.

Highlights of the season included doubleheader sweeps of rivals Keene State and Franklin Pierce, and a split with nationally ranked Sacred Heart University. The team finished the season with a 11-6-2 record.

The 1991 season saw the NHC softball team finish with its most successful season since 1988, and recorded the most conference wins in the history of the program. The team finished with a record of 13-16.

The team struggled through the first half of the season, winning just four of its first 15 games. A doubleheader sweep of Franklin Pierce started a second half surge, as the team prevailed in nine of its final 14 games, at one point putting together a streak of seven straight victories.

Events

Fall and Spring weekends, Lip Sync, and Oozeball are some of the special events that have left lasting memories of the good times we had together at NHC. These events brought out sides of us that the classroom never saw. That was then . . . when we could dive through the mud at oozeball, lip sync to our favorite songs, and vote on what group to bring in for our premiere performance. But, keep these memories close to your heart — This is now — Go out and seize the world!!!

It all began in 1987 when we walked onto campus as separate pieces of a puzzle that would eventually become one. That was then . . .

We worked, we played, we grew and we eventually became one. That “one” is the great class of 1991. The class of which we are all proud to be a part. The four years have quickly passed and the puzzle must break apart again. This is now . . .

To the class of 1991:

CONGRATULATIONS!! We made it.

This 1991 Enterprise yearbook was made to provide you with many memories of our time at NHC. Looking back we remember the hard times in classes and the fun outside of classes and it all seems like yesterday. I hope that this book will provide you with memories of friendships that are still together and those that may have drifted over time.

Much time and effort was taken to complete this yearbook and I could not have done it alone. I would like to thank Jim O'Keefe from Jostens, Marty Bradley and Debbie Hubbard, advisors for all of their help. I would also like to thank my staff for all their time in helping to make this a successful yearbook. Thank you!

Use this yearbook to remind yourselves; together forever, never apart, maybe in distance, but never in heart.

Good luck to the class of 1991!

Sincerely,

Jennifer Cummings

We Were So Young And Impressionable, With Mixed Feelings About Going Away To College. So Many Changes Were Ahead That None Of Us Could Have Predicted. But, The Four Years Did Fly By And Our Lives Independently Changed, While At The Same Time We Were Together As A Group.

Now We Look Back At Graduation, Senior Week, The 100 Day Party And So On Back And Think, “Is It Really Over?” We Have Closed This Chapter Of Our Lives Only To Move On To Greater Heights. But, We Will Never Forget The Knowledge, Growth, And Good Times We Experienced Here At NHC. The Class Of 1991 Will Hold A Special Place In Our Hearts And Has Made Many Changes In Us That Will Serve As A Source Of Guidance Throughout Our Lives.
