Welcome to the New England Circle . . .

Our purpose is to assemble for discussion of social, political, literary and educational topics; our goal is to exchange ideas and opinions that can lead to constructive change in our personal lives and in our nation.

John Kenneth Galbraith, universally-renowned economist, will lead our discussion for the eleventh meeting of the New England Circle.

Mr. Galbraith has achieved worldwide acclaim and status as an economist, author, ambassador, professor, television producer and new frontiersman — in short — a true personage of his generation.

He is the author of major socio-economic books: "The Affluent Society," "The Industrial State," and "The Age of Uncertainty." His published works, spanning more than three decades, are noted for their social and literary insight, wit, and charm.

A former editor of Fortune, he served as United States Ambassador to India under President John F. Kennedy, and was recently elected a member of the American Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters of New York.

John Kenneth Galbraith is a leader among those who protest the social imbalance of private over public development. He welcomes such entities as unions and retail chains as a "countervailing power" to corporate monopolies and assails the "technostructure" that "increasingly accommodates men to its needs."

Mr. Galbraith and his wife, Catherine, reside in Cambridge, Massachusetts and have three sons. He has long been a part-time resident of Vermont and has done much of his writing in Switzerland.

Previous New England Circle Guest Speakers have been: Author Richard N. Goodwin; Historian Dr. Henry Steele Commager; Former Governor and Democratic National Committee Chairman Kenneth Curtis; Georgia State Senator Julian Bond; Massachusetts Congressman Michael Harrington; Massachusetts Senator Edward M. Kennedy; Journalist Jimmy Breslin; United Nations Ambassador Andrew Young; Human Rights Activist Coretta Scott King, and U. S. House Speaker Thomas P. 'Tip' O'Neill, Jr.

Your Hosts . . .
