DUE HONOR

Our President Emeritus, Dr. Gertrude C. Shapiro, has been elected to the position of corporator for the Merchants Savings Bank in Manchester. She was honored as a new corporator at the bank's annual dinner meeting held last Tuesday evening at The Chateau Restaurant. Eleven other prominent Manchester citizens were also honored at the meeting.

Those new on campus should know that Dr. Shapiro served as the president of New Hampshire College from 1952-1971. Congratulations are in order, and certainly well deserved for this latest recognition of her ability and willingness to serve.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

There will be a meeting of the executive officers of the Student Government Association on Wednesday, January 31, at 12:00 noon in the SGA Office.

FIELD TRIP

Those students who have completed statistics are invited to a field trip to Katy Industries, Grenier Field, on Wednesday, February 7, at 2:00 p.m. Please see Mrs. Van Cor before 4:00 p.m. on Friday, February 2, if you wish to participate.

CONGRESSIONAL INTEREST

Interested in becoming a SGA congressman for the Management Department? If you are, please stop by the Student Government Office. There are two openings. Please, at least make an attempt at participation.--Paul A. Weiss, President, SGA

NHC INVITATIONAL FOOSBALL TOURNAMENT

On Thursday, February 1, New Hampshire College will hold its annual Invitational Foosball Tournament. Invitations were sent to the various establishments--mostly colleges--in the Manchester area and surrounding communities. Of the nine organizations invited, six have responded affirmatively. They are:

New Hampshire Vocational Technical Colleges-
Nashua and Manchester
Keene State College - two teams
New England Aeronautical College
Bowling Acres Lanes, Peterborough

Also, the host school will field two teams.

"MOVIE ORGY"

"Movie Orgy" will be shown at various times on campus this week. This is a conglomeration of "snips of old flicks" and early television programs woven into "I was a Teenage Werewolf". This unique and great film will be shown at 11:00 a.m. today in the cafeteria and at 8:00 p.m. in the Little Theater on Thursday.

TALENT SEARCH

Can you play an instrument, read poetry, sing, or do anything that is interesting? If you have any talent at all and are interested in performing at the Coffee House, please contact Brian Gorden, Director of Student Activities.

YEARBOOK MEETING

There will be a Yearbook meeting on Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m. in the Yearbook Office.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Bashir Ahmed, acting president of the NH International Club, has called an important meeting for Monday, February 5, in F58 at 12:00 noon. All international students are urged to attend this reorganization meeting, which will cover:

A planned trip to Boston, a campus beer blast, possible United Nations trip to New York for some members, cultural films from other nations.

The International Club affords each of its members the opportunity to share experiences not only with other international students at NHC, but with others in the Boston and New York areas. Be sure to attend and make some exciting plans become a reality.

FLY HIGH

Have you made reservations for the high point of Winter Weekend? Pilots Amodeo and Armitage, both members of the New Hampshire College Pilots Association, are ready to give you a new outlook on life.

You will be able to fly at a discount price of $4.25 an hour per person on Saturday and Sunday, February 10 and 11. Contact Lee Amodeo, Winnisquam, Room 318 and Douglas Armitage, Greeley, Room 27, for further information.

PLACEMENT INTERVIEWS

A representative from Ford Motor will be on campus Friday, February 2. They have positions available in finance, marketing, and data processing. If you wish to meet with their representative, please sign up in the Placement Office in Frost Hall.

If you have those pre-graduation job-hunting jitters, the time is NOW for finding jobs. Go to the Placement Office and sign up for interviews in February. GET MOVING!!
