They have also played at most of the major bluegrass festivals as well as appearing on the Grand Ole Opry.

Don Reno was voted by the readers of Bluegrass Unlimited magazine "The 1971 Banjo Player of the Year." Don, a guitarist as well as a banjo player, was the original co-recorder of "Dueling Banjos." Bill Harrell, the rhythm guitar player and lead singer, has been Don's partner since 1966. The group also includes Ed Ferris on bass and Buck Ryan, three-time National Fiddle Champion.

Appearing with the Cutups is the comedy team of Edmonds and Curley. This up and coming act has appeared with Johnny Carson, Dick Cavett, Mike Douglas and other television shows as well as in night clubs throughout the U. S. Currently touring college campuses in the Northeast, Edmonds and Curley will soon bring their comic genius to NHC.

Mr. Edward M. Shapiro
New Hampshire College
2500 North River Road
Manchester, N.H.

Dear President Shapiro:

I wish to express my sincerest gratitude to you for allowing the use of the N.H. College Gym for the benefit basketball game held there recently between the Manchester Fire Fighters and myself and my fellow baseball players.

The net proceeds for the event came to $450.00, which will be used in support of Easter Seal rehabilitation programs for the handicapped. Events such as the basketball game, which you kindness make possible, are vitally important to the success of the 1974 Easter Seal Campaign.

I remain most grateful for your co-operation.

Sincerely,

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Present: June Freo, Mark Singer, Lynne Fecteau, Ed Kelley, Phil Wright, Brad Hughes, Gordon Randall, Dennis Moore, Jack Regan, Alan Bush, Betty Carantit, Jim Reed, and Cindy Clogston

Guests: Phil Flamer, Sandy Roy, Louis Smith, Sheila Milne, Kristi Wernhoff, Maryann Sissa, Michele Arndt, Bob Ferme, Janis Woodbury, President Shapiro, and Dean Larkin

Meeting called to order at 6:40.

Secretary's report was approved.

New Business: Telethon

President Shapiro reported that the alumni had committed itself to run a telethon in March to raise money for scholarships and college facilities. The telethon will be held at the Wayfarer and the cost of rent for the phones and room would be about $200. Fifty to sixty people will be required to answer phones, make phone calls, and do the paper work. It is hoped that 50-60 percent of the work will be done by alumni.

Retention of Lawyer:

Dean Larkin stated that there seems to be an over abundance of students involvement with the police and suggested strongly that the SGA consider retaining a lawyer even if it was only to obtain legal advice over the phone. Dean Larkin is willing to look for a lawyer who will not be too expensive. This lawyer will give advice only.

Old Business:

Evaluation Committee: Sheila Milne and Kristi Wernhoff attended the meeting to explain to us why the evaluation was not completed. Sheila stated that she and Kristi had to pass out questionnaires to 2-3 classes at once plus go to their own classes. Students were giving them static saying that it was a waste of time and that they never saw the results. The work finally became too much for them to handle and they didn't receive the co-operation they needed. The girls said that they had done the best they could do and couldn't do any more.

Motion: Charge the Evaluation Committee to have a report for our next meeting.

Vote: Unanimous

Students International Meditation Committee wished to have their constitution approved and become a recognized organization of NHC.

Motion: Accept the constitution and recognize the Students International Meditation Committee as a sanctional organization of NHC.

Vote: Unanimous

Miss NHC:

Sandy Roy asked who appropriated the money for the winner so that she may attend the Miss NH Pageant.

Motion: To make up the difference between what is left from the Miss NHC Pageant and what is needed for the Miss NH Pageant.

Vote: Unanimous

Sandy would also like to have a reception following the pageant. She didn't think a BYOB was appropriate. She was asked to submit a budget and letter before the next meeting.

Special Events Winter Weekend:

Friday, Feb. 22, there will be a Sadie Hawkin's Square Dance (all types of music to be played), a beer blast. The Tennessee Cut Up is the name of the group. Saturday, Feb. 23, Edmonds and Curley will provide some comedy.

Yearbook:

The Yearbook will consist of approximately 188 pages. The size will be 9 x 12". We will order 1,000 books for next year to distribute among students and graduates. (Yearbooks will be mailed to seniors at their home address according to registra records.)

We are working with a budget of $8,000. The cost of the yearbook we are trying to produce will be around $7,800. Options have not been decided. Such as type, paper, cover, etc.

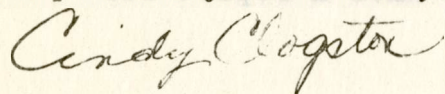

The Yearbook staff has about 15 members. The work is divided into 4 areas. Production - Sue Lapointe, Business - Marcia Hayes, Advertising - Betty CANNITT, Photography - Nick Bratten. Each area has its members. A meeting is held every week on Wednesday, designated time.

First Semester we covered senior portraits and events. (Photography work) Adds are continuously coming in. Second Semester: We are now gathering all materials needed for the production of the book. This consist of all pictures, write ups, opinions, activities, events, etc.

Deadline for all senior pictures will be March 1. Notices will be printed in the campus news at various times.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Cindy Clogston
