Women's Volleyball

The Southern New Hampshire University volleyball team closed out the 200 season with a 13-12 record, which ranks as the most wins in a season since the 2003 team that posted a 16-12 record. The Penmen entered the final match of the season at Merrimack needing a win to qualify for the Northeast 10 Conference Tournament, but were denied their first NE-10 playoff bid sin 2003 following a 3-1 loss to the Warriors. Highlights of the season included a 3-0 sweep of previously unbeaten Assumption College, a 3-2 victory over cro town rival Saint Anselm and a 3-2 victory at Pace.

Senior Colleen Eddy closed out her four-year career in style, as she was vote third-team all-conference and the 2006 NE-10 Libero of the Year. She becom the first SNHU volleyball player to earn a major post-season award since SN joined the league in 2001. Eddy led the team and ranked fourth among the NE-10 leaders in digs per game. She came just 10 digs shy of breaking her own school record for digs in a season (502) and closed out her career with a school-record 1,628 digs. Sophomore Jamie Rood averaged a team-high 3.0 kills per game, while classmate Brianna Doucet led the team in service aces (50) and ranked second on the team in kills per game (2.87) and digs per gan (4.45).
