Welcome to the New England Circle . . .

Our purpose is to assemble for discussion of social, political, literary and educational topics; our goal is the exchange of ideas and opinions that lead to constructive change in our personal lives and in our nation.

Mrs. Coretta Scott King, the widow of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., will lead our discussion for the ninth meeting of the New England Circle.

Born in Marion, Alabama, Coretta Scott King is a graduate of Antioch College and the New England Conservatory of Music. The mother of four children. Mrs.

King travels extensively throughout the world for international conferences and goodwill missions.

Mrs. King is a leading participant in the non-violent movement since the Montgomery Bus Boycott of 1955-56. Widely renowned for her dedicated efforts in the struggle for human rights and full employment, she serves as Co-Chairperson of the National Committee on Full Employment.

President Carter recently appointed Mrs. King as United States Representative to the 32nd Session of the United Nations General Assembly. Mrs. King is also President of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Social Change, Chairperson of the Commission on Economic Justice for Women, member of the Board of Directors of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and author of My Life With Martin Luther King, Jr., published in 1969.

Mrs. King's endeavors in the arena of civil rights motivate many Americans to re-examine their approach to social justice. Committed to the "Dream" of the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Mrs. King strives to make that "Dream" a reality.

Previous New England Circle Guest Speakers are Author Richard N. Goodwin; Historian Dr. Henry Steele Commager; Democratic National Committee Chairman Kenneth Curtis; Georgia State Senator Julian Bond; Massachusetts Senator Edward M. Kennedy; Journalist Jimmy Breslin and United Nations Ambassador Andrew Young.

Your Hosts . . .

. . . Jack, Bill, Walter, Roy and Jerry Dunfey
