SNOW SCULPTURES

New Hampshire College would like to see its first Winter Festival highlighted by huge snow sculptures. Fabulous money prizes will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. A great, fun way to build up your treasury. Any fraternity, club or even group of friends who are interested, please leave a note in Nick Brattan's mailbox, 432, no later than Friday, Jan. 25. Rules, dates of contest and places of construction will be available soon. Helpful hints for building will also be supplied.

DISC JOCKEYS

A meeting will be held today for all men and women who are interested in becoming disc jockeys on WCAC. If you'd like to get involved in NHC radio, plan to attend the meeting, Stark 13 at 12 noon.

MANCHESTER CHORALE

The Manchester Chorale is giving a concert on Sunday, Jan. 27 at the Manchester Memorial High School Auditorium and will be singing selections from Bach, Mozart, Bernstein and others. Two of the main attractions will be the American Jazz Mass by Frank Tirro with a jazz ensemble, and the Cantata #140 by J. S. Bach with an 18-piece chamber orchestra.

If anyone wishes complimentary tickets, please see Dick Ball, Stark 17.

PROJECTION SCREENS

Projection screens have been installed in some classrooms in Frost and Stark Halls as you may have noticed. Two additional screens are available for installation. Faculty members who would like a screen installed, please advise me. Dick Ball, Director of A. V.
