VIDEO WEEK AT NHC

This week, February 11 through February 17, will be Video Week at NHC. Co-sponsored by the Activities and Audio-Visual Departments, the various programs are set up to show the versatility of our A-V equipment as well as to determine if there is interest on campus in utilizing the A-V equipment as an activity for students. The schedules for the week's programs have been placed in the mailboxes as well as in various pick up points around campus. As you will see on the schedule, Thursday afternoon from 2:00 on has been set up as an open house at the A-V studio (S24). We hope that anyone who is curious about A-V and its potential uses will stop by.

SHOW TIME!

Anyone who wants to be in the Variety Show for February 28, 1974 please contact Renee Ecl6. Rehearsal will be held in the Little Theater on Monday from 7 - 9 p.m. You may say, "But I don't have any talent. I can't sign up." Think again, and get involved in the show if you sing well in the shower, trip the light fantastic, play anything from a harmonica to a zither, twirl a baton, or whistle duets? The more the merrier!

DMA BREAKFAST

The Downtown Manchester Association invited Dean George Larkin, Director of Athletics Lou D'Allesandro, and the Penmen basketball players to their Friday morning breakfast meeting. Coach D'Allesandro reports that the DMA looks upon NHC as being "a viable force in the economic development of the Manchester community." He said the DMA members commended the spirit of cooperation which has existed this year between the college and the community, and expressed thanks to their NHC breakfast guests.

THEATER PARTY

Many thanks to Charles Wilbert, Assistant Professor of English, for arranging a thoroughly enjoyable trip to Boston for NHC students, faculty and administration members on Thursday night. The seats were terrific, the play was outstanding entertainment, and the midnight snacks in good company wound up a memorable evening.

Eli Wallach and Ann Jackson starred in "Waltz of the Toreadors," turning in magnificent performances. Their two daughters had roles in the play. The youngest obtained her part by answering an ad in the New York Times, proving it can be what you know, not who you know!
