Mrs. Hall, whose art work many of us have enjoyed, professes to be no expert in all the above fields, but says, "I'll be happy to help anyone in areas where I've had training. We also have a fine collection of books for reference assistance, and if someone needs more professional aid on a project, I'll make an effort to contact a person with good experience in the particular medium. I hope everyone will take advantage of the chance to work with the really interesting materials we have selected."
