SNOW SCULPTURES

New Hampshire College would like to see its first Winter Festival highlighted by huge snow sculptures. Fabulous money prizes will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. A great, fun way to build up your treasury. Any fraternity, club, or even group of friends who are interested, please leave a note in Nick Brattan's mailbox, #432, no later than Friday, Jan. 25. Rules, dates of contest and places of construction will be available soon. Helpful hints for building will also be supplied.

SKI CLUB

There will be an important meeting of the Ski Club tonight at 8 p.m. in S10. At this meeting we will plan a weekend ski trip to take place in the next week or two. It is important that anybody interested attend. This will be a brief meeting.

R.A.'S

All candidates for the positions of Resident Assistants should report to the Little Theater Monday, Jan. 21 at 6 p.m. (That's tonight) Anyone who can not make the meeting should see Dean Larkin during the day.

FIRE ROAD CLOSED

Due to the fact that emergency vehicles and the maintenance crews have had difficulty carrying out their tasks, commencing Jan. 21 at 4 p.m. both ends of the fire road will be blocked off by chains. Any vehicle found using or parked on the fire road without permission of the college security staff will be towed immediately.

WRESTLING

There will be a meeting Wednesday, Jan. 23 in S14 at 7 p.m. for anyone interested in wrestling. Any interested wrestlers should attend.

JOIN THE CHORUS!

Do you like to warble with Kris Kristofferson, Tod Rundgren, Carly Simon or the Carpenters? Maybe you're more the operatic type, or jazz is your thing? Whatever you like to sing, do your thing with the New Hampshire College Chorus on Tuesday, January 22 from 6 - 8 p.m. in the Little Theater.

KAPPA SIGMA

The following students are invited to attend our formal smoker Tuesday, Jan. 22, at 8 p.m. in the Little Theater: Willis Merrill, Rick McGrath, Eric Bergh, Gerald Montminy, Gabriel Kisfaludy, Carl Weinstein, William Ragonese, Brewster Gove, Dick Pariseau, Michael Cipriani, Pierce Hayes, Jack McHenry, and Martin Cawley.
