SKETCHES

If you feel a work of art
Coming through straight from your heart,
Here's your chance for an honest start--
Come on everyone, do your part.

Our school is starting a new review,
And we need essays from all of you,
Poems, fiction and feelings too.
Works are accepted from teachers who
Want their experiences conveyed to you.

So come on one, and come on all,
Bring your writing to Frost Hall.
We'll edit and print it for your recall--
Come write for us and have a ball.

Leave all works at F90 and F30.

Ron Poulin
Managing Editor

BASEBALL TEAM

There will be an important meeting today at 12 noon in S10. Please bring unsold candy and bring the money you've collected from candy sales. We must complete our candy sales program.

NEW YORK CONFERENCE

New Hampshire College was well represented at the annual convention of the National Retail Merchants Association held recently in New York City. Assistant Professor Dorothy Rogers was accompanied to the 3-day conference by Fashion Merchandising majors Sandi Roy, Karen Grady and Mrs. Martha G. Knox. The meeting was held at the New York Hilton, where over 1,000 exhibits were set up by members of the Association.

DOWN UNDER

Of interest to you Business Education majors from American College Public Relations Association News: "Prospects for job-hunting teachers may be on the upswing in this country, but they're even better than ever in Australia."

An Australian educator touring the U. S. on a six-week recruiting effort, says Australia has a shortage of teachers and plans to hire some 2500 young American teachers in the next 18 months. Starting salary for beginning teachers--about $7,800.

FREE SPEED!

Got your attention, didn't we! What we're talking about is free speed reading lessons offered tonight and tomorrow night at 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. at the Sheraton-Wayfarer Motor Inn on Route 3, Bedford. The Evelyn Wood Speed Reading Course will be offered free for a one hour mini-lesson this week Wed. and Thurs.

HONOR SOCIETY

Present and prospective members of the Honor Society Activities Committee are asked to attend an important meeting in S12 at noon today. Please come if you would like to help work up projects for this semester--your ideas are needed.

SNEA MEETS

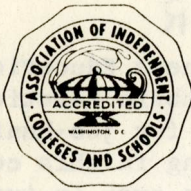

On Thursday night, January 31 SNEA will present a panel discussion program at 7 p.m. in Stark 14. Members of the panel sponsored by the Student National Education Association will be school superintendents from this area. The program will be an open forum with questions from the audience welcomed. Anyone interested is invited to attend this function.

WNHC PLEA

Because of lack of staff members, our campus TV station will only be on the air on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Co-Manager Glenn Lobel reports there will be a meeting Tuesday, Feb. 5 for anyone interested in helping out at WNHC. Glenn emphasizes that if you're camera shy, you can help behind the scenes--your enthusiasm and help are needed to keep the station going. You don't have to be a star unless you want to! Show up to offer your much-needed help next Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the newsroom next to radio station WCAC.

SKI TEAM

It is important that all members of the NHC Ski Team attend a meeting TONIGHT at 6 p.m. in Stark 22. DON'T MISS IT!

Dear Ed:

It was with a great deal of interest and pleasure that I read your recent press release announcing the receipt of accreditation from the New England Association, as well as the retention of accreditation from AICS.

Indeed, it seems the press release itself is fair grounds to draw an inference about the high degree of professionalism manifest in New Hampshire College, including the Public Relations Department.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Fulton
