Days of Future Passed

That past
which is so
presumptuously
brought forward
for the present,
was itself founded
on some past
that went
before it.

M. de Stall

Making friends for the world to see
let the people know you got what you need.
With a friend at hand
you will see the light
if your friends are there then
everything's alright!
Making friends . . .

At New Hampshire College friends are easy to find, whether it's through a sorority or fraternity, in the snack bar, during classes or even at a party.

One Is The Loneliest Number . . .

The Troops Came Marching 2 By 2 . . .

Let's dump the goods.

How's about it Sweetie!

Let's get outa here.

Oh "chits" I don't have enough!

I wish I was back on my water bed!

What a view!

Come on Jeane, we all know it's you.

Hey, ho, heave, ho.

Not now, Please!

Caught in a loop?

Dedication

If I make a mark in time
I can't say the mark is mine.
I'm only the underlined of the world.
Yes, I'm like him, just like you.
I can't tell you what to do.
Like everybody else. I'm searching thru
what I've heard.

The Yearbook staff would like to dedicate this publication to Conrad Doyon.

Conrad has been an asset to the NHC Community for some time. He uses his magic touch with plants to beautify our campus. We say Thank-you for your perfectly green thumb.

More than 200 parents attended the first "Weekend for Parents" which was held on October 18 and 19, 1975. There was a slide presentation done by the Student Services Staff and demonstrations in the computer and A-V Centers.

Evening activities began with a President's reception and a champagne hour. This was followed by a buffet/dinner theater. The Amorous Flea, a musical comedy, was presented by the NHC Drama Club.

On Sunday there was an ecumenical service following Brunch. The College Chorus provided the music.

New Hampshire College hosted parents from New Jersey, New York, Penn., West Virginia, Florida and every New England State.

At 3 p.m. on March 27 (the end of the Marathon), 8 couples remained after 24 hours of continuous dancing for Muscular Distrophy. The Way I Feel

i've noticed i'm happier
when i make love
with you
and have enough left
over to smile at my doorman

i've realized i'm fulfilled
like a big fat cow
who has just picked
for a carnation contentment
when you kiss your special place
right behind my knee

i'm as glad as mortar
on a brick that knows
another brick is coming
when you walk through
my door

most time when your're around
i feel like a note
roberta flack is going to sing

in my mind you're a clock
and i'm the second hand sweeping
around you sixty times an hour
twenty-four times a day
three hundred sixty-five days a year
and an extra day
in leap year
cause that's the way
that's the way i feel
about you

--Nikki Giovanni

In Memoriam

Hollie and Marian Whittemore

In Gratitude for a Legacy Left Unknowingly

The morning's light brings knowledge with its brightness;
the sunshine bends its rays to touch each mind.
Enlightened, all as one strain toward new ventures;
yet, reaching far ahead, we see behind.

Behind us whisper voices which still guide us,
sent from gifts which cost great sacrifice.
Their time was spent to bring us from the shadows
into imagination's paradise.

The paradise they worked for knows no boundaries;
through all forms of being it takes our lives
Even when a voice has risen past our vision,
its echo still reflects within our eyes.

Far beneath the surface of life's wisdom
a part cannot be lost, indeed, is found.
For us, the loss of life is desolation;
In truth, it cuts earth's bonds which hold us down.

Unselfish gifts of caring are unchanging;
such love cannot, will never, every stray.
As with beloved flowers and trees, love holds us;
all feelings, memories, thoughts will ever stay.

In thanks for those whose sympathy and kindness
influenced indirectly all our lives,
We offer to their memory our passion
for worlds of though they gave through other's eyes.
