GOING SKIING

John Steen, Kearsage 23, 7-4751, needs a ride to the Rutland, Vermont area either today or tomorrow. Bucks for gas!

FILM CHAIRMAN

Anyone interested in applying to become Film Chairman for the coming year is asked to stop in at the Student Activities Office right away. See either Director Brian Gorden or Mrs. Cynthia Levine.

MANAGEMENT COOP. EDUC.

Register now for cooperative education in room F-50. The job market is tight. It may take months to find a spot for you. We compete with other colleges and the unemployed for scarce opportunities. All applicants must go through a screening process. All candidates must be interviewed by the prospective employer. In any event, April 1 is the deadline for applications.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I would like to extend my congratulations to the person who stole my MA-22 and SOC-22 books from @-25 Wednesday morning. I sincerely hope that I never find out who you are. If your new additions to your academic library should bother your conscience (if you have one), return the books to the Security Office and no questions will be asked.

STAND

"The U. S. District Court Judge Hugh Bownes ruled that homosexual student groups can hold social activities on the University of New Hampshire campus like other student clubs, under the protection of the First and Fourteenth Constitutional amendments." If you recall last December Gov. Thomson had threatened to veto state funds for the University unless the gays were removed from the campus.

The Gay Club after hearing the ridiculous statement from our Loved Gov. Thomson. They appealed to the state government to enforce their rights and goals.

M. Dunn

H-R-T MAJORS

There will be a luncheon meeting for all Hotel-Resort-Tourism majors on Monday, Please meet in F62 at 12 noon.

FILLER

The Jan. 15 issue of Wall Street Journal indicates that a six-year medical study on the common cold concluded: "Being highly educated but with a low income is a particularly unhappy combination, insofar as colds and flu are concerned."
