2nd SBI PROGRAM

The new Small Business Institute program is starting up to offer in-depth counseling to 10 businesses in the Manchester-Merrimack Valley area. Any students Interested in working on this vital project are asked to contact the coordinator, Professor Irving E. Rothman, Frost 50, immediately.

A very successful conclusion of the first Small Business Institute program conducted at New Hampshire College was noted at a Thursday evening dinner held on campus. Dr. R. John Reynolds chaired the event and introduced District Director Bert Teague of the Small Business Administration in Concord, honored guest of the evening. Mr. Teague presented impressive Small Business Administration citations "In recognition and appreciation of the public service rendered this agency and the small businesses of the community as Student Counselors" to: Douglas Armitage, Joseph C. Chevalier, Gary M. Dallero, Robert J. Geysler, Bradley W. Hughes, Richard V. Lowney, Alan J. Manuel, Andre G. Martel, Robert Maynes, Frederick Petty, Alan Bush and Paul L. Simek.

DEAR ABBY:

I am a sweet little old lady whose only pleasure in life is attending the NHC Chorus on Tuesdays from 6 - 8 p.m. in the Little Theater. I fear I may be forced into a sinful life of smoking, drinking and general carousing if chorus ends because of lack of interest on the part of NHC students. What shall I do? Purity.

Dear Purity: Live a little. Get out all the sinners, and SING, YOU SINNERS, SING!
