Tonight's New England Circle considers one of the most perennially complex issues of our day: peace in the Middle East. More specifically, independent statehood for the Palestinians and security for the state of Israel.

Our co-Discussion Leaders, Mubarak Awad and Yosef Olmert, both natives of the territory, bring a lifetime of interest and commitment to the resolution of this seemingly timeless conflict. Committed to the strategy of non-violent resistance, Mr. Awad believes that sectors of occupied Israel can become a Palestinian state.

Yosef Olmert, an internationally recognized expert on Middle East affairs asserts that in order to bring peace to the area, the involvement of neighboring Syria and Jordan is critical.

Despite ongoing territorial tensions, Olmert and Awad agree that the opportunity for negotiations toward peace and security presently exists.

Marcia Gillespie, Executive Editor of Ms MAGAZINE is tonight's Moderator. Recently, Gillespie was named one of the ten outstanding Women in Magazine Publishing. BLACK ENTERPRISE MAGAZINE called her one of the most important Black women in American business.

At each New England Circle, women and men of different cultures, ideologies and professions are invited to share their points of view with prominent Discussion Leaders. These continue and expand an historic tradition established more than one hundred years ago when Ralph Waldo Emerson, Charles Dickens, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow and others gathered regularly at the Parker House for stimulating discussions. We invite both new and experienced Circle members to attend the limited number of Circles held each year. We welcome you tonight. You will always be a member of New England Circle.

New England Circle is a nonprofit, nonpartisan foundation for educational purposes.
